TO: FINANCE Ordinance, Art. 7-136 - Transient Merchants

FROM: FINANCE Police

RE: ORDINANCE The now existing Article 7-136 regulates the seller of goods, wares or merchandise within the City by regulating such persons who are defined as "transient merchants" to purchase a license and this gives notice to the City of their existence with the city limits. The now existing ordinance does not regulate the transient buyer of goods, wares or merchandise.

The ordinance, if amended as requested, would re-define "transient merchant" to include both the buyer and seller of wholesale goods, wares, coins and precious metals. The existing ordinance defines transient merchant as one who sells and is engaged in business for 120 days or less.

REASON FOR PASSAGE Control can be exerted over transient buyer and seller of coins and precious metals with the possibility of retrieving stolen goods which are inevitably sold to this type of merchant.

REASON FOR NON-PASSAGE Ineffective policing of transient buyers of coins and precious metals.

ESTIMATED COSTS, EXPENDITURES, SAVINGS None

PUBLISHER'S CLAIM

Notice is hereby given that on the 11th day of October, 1977, the Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne, Indiana, in a Regular Session did pass the following BILL No. G-77-94, G-38-77 General Ordinance, to-wit:

BILL No. G-77-94
GENERAL ORDINANCE No. G-38-77

AN ORDINANCE amending certain sections of the Code of the City of Fort Wayne, Indiana of 1974.

Be it ordained by the Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne, Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the following sections of the Code of the City of Fort Wayne, Indiana of 1974 be and the same are hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 7-136 Defined. The term "transient merchant" within the meaning of this division, shall mean any person engaging in buying or selling, at retail or wholesale, goods, wares, gains, precious metals or merchandise in the city, or any and all persons, both principals and agents, who engage or conduct any business in the city, either in one locality or in traveling from place to place, for the purpose of buying or selling goods, wares, coins, precious metals and merchandise for a period of one hundred twenty consecutive days, or less, and who for the purpose of carrying on such business, shall have use of or occupy any building, vehicle, railway car, booth, store, shop, vacant lot or parking lot, tent, room in a hotel, rooming house or boarding house, structure or other place for the buying exhibition or sale of such merchandise. The term "transient merchant" shall not be construed to apply to any person buying or selling goods, wares, coins, precious metals or merchandise of any description raised, produced or manufactured by the individual offering the same for sale as hereinafter provided, nor to persons handling vegetables, fruits or perishable farm products by an established merchant, refreshment stands, or having booths on or adjacent to the property owned or occupied by them, nor to any stand on any grounds, or to any peddlers or marketeers or to the bona fide sale of goods, wares, coins, precious metals and merchandise by sample or for future delivery by commercial travelers, jobbers or selling agents, or to sheriffs, constables or other public officers selling goods, wares, coins, precious metals or merchandise according to law, nor to the temporary sale of goods, coins, precious metals, wares or merchandise where the proceeds of such sale are to be used exclusively for religious, charitable and benevolent purposes.

Section 7-137. Persons presumed to be transient merchants. Every person engaged in buying or selling, at retail or wholesale sale of goods, wares, coins, precious metals or merchandise in the city in locations and places described in section 7-136 shall be presumed to be a transient merchant, and his place of business shall be presumed to be a temporary store or place of business. This presumption, however, may be overcome by furnishing proof satisfactory to the controller of the city that such person is not a transient merchant within the meaning of this division.

SECTION 2. This Ordinance shall remain in full force and effect from and after its passage, approval by the Mayor and legal publication thereof.
